Song of Worship	The Secret Place

"Jesus can command the devil to let us go, and he will do so, if we implore his help. But the devil will not let go his captives, unless he is compelled; he diligently watches over them, lest they would believe and be saved, accompanies them to church and follows them home. Yes, he follows them close, for he has a numerous train of servants at his command. But there is a place where he cannot come; the shadow of the Almighty's wings. O enter into the secret place of the Most High, and there you shall be safe; for He shall cover you with his feathers, and under his wings shall you trust; the young lion and the dragon shall you trample under foot. (Psalm 91)"

"For unto you is born this day . . ." (Luke 2:11). It happened on a day. A day in history. Not a day in some mythological, imaginary story, but a day when "Caesar Augustus was the emperor of Rome and Quirinius was governor of Syria."

It was a day planned in eternity before the creation of the world. Indeed the whole universe – with untold light-years of space and billions of galaxies – was created and made glorious for this day and what it means for human history.

For by him all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities—all things were created through him and for him." (Colossians 1:16).

For him! For his appearance. For this day of his appearing. "When the fullness of time had come, God sent forth his Son, born of woman, born under the law" (Galatians 4:4). It happened on a day. The perfect day. In the fullness of time. The perfect time appointed by God before the foundation of the world. "For unto you is born this day!" ~John Piper
