

Welcome to Crosspoint Fellowship

December 24, 2017

Morning Worship Service

Welcome	Greg Snow
New City Catechism	Question 50
Scripture Reference: 1 Thessalonians 4:13-14
Songs of Praise	Sing We Now Of Christmas Good Christian Men Rejoice Jesus, The Son Of God
Confession of Sin & Time of Prayer	Justin Brown
Assurance of Pardon	Justin Brown
Songs of Worship	What Child Is This Silent Night
Offering
Songs of Worship	Joy Has Dawned Angels We have Heard On High
Preaching of God's Word	Greg Snow
Scripture Reference: Luke 7:36-50
Song of Worship	Holy Child Who Chose The Hearts Of Men

"There is really one primary reason why Jesus was born. He was only a baby so he could be a man and die... Those soft baby hands, fashioned by the Holy Spirit in Mary's womb were made in order that nails might be driven through them. Those chubby feet, pink and unable to walk, were one day to walk a hill and be nailed to a cross. That sweet head with sparkling eyes and eager mouth was formed in order that someday men might crush into a crown of thorns. That tender body, warm and soft, wrapped in swaddling clothes would one day be ripped open by a spear to reveal a broken heart and that's exactly why God made that body. Jesus was born to die."

John MacArthur

Announcements

Looking Ahead

Today - Morning Worship Service; No Fellowship Meal

Wednesday - No Mid-Week Bible Study

December 31 - Morning Worship Service; Fellowship Meal (Theme: Breakfast)

January 1 - Happy New Year

January 3 - Mid-Week Bible Study in Proverbs & Prayer Meeting

January 7 - Morning Worship Service; The Lord's Supper; Fellowship Meal

January 8 - Proclamation Youth Choir Rehearsal Begins - 6-8PM

Mid-Week Service Cancelled

Please note that the Mid-Week Bible Study & Prayer Meeting will be cancelled for Wednesday, December 27th. We will resume our Wednesday evening service on January 3, 2018.

Matthew Henry's commentary on today's text, Luke 7:36-50...

"It is true this woman has been a sinner: he knows it; but she is a pardoned sinner, which supposes her to be a penitent sinner. What she did to him was an expression of her great love to her Saviour, by whom her sins were forgiven. If she was pardoned, who had been so great a sinner, it might reasonably be expected that she should love her Saviour more than others, and should give greater proofs of it than others; and if this was the fruit of her love, and flowing from a sense of the pardon of her sin, it became him to accept of it, and it ill became the Pharisee to be offended at it. Now Christ has a further intention in this. The Pharisee doubted whether he was a prophet or no, nay, he did in effect deny it; but Christ shows that he was more than a prophet, for he is one that has power on earth to forgive sins, and to whom are due the affections and thankful acknowledgments of penitent pardoned sinners."

Merry Christmas!