If there be any one point in which the Christian church ought to keep its fervor at a white heat, it is concerning missions. If there be anything about which we cannot tolerate lukewarmness, it is in the matter of sending the gospel to a dying world.

FOR THE CAUSE

Millions of believers – Thousands of Churches – Dozens of Languages – One Voice
On Sunday 25 June, Getty Music in partnership with OMF will host their second annual #TheTaskUnfinished Global Hymn Sing featuring the Getty's new song – For The Cause. Crosspoint Fellowship will join millions of believers worldwide in singing this song today as a way to focus on the imperative need for the Gospel to go to all nations. Furthermore, all of the songs during this morning's worship service will focus on spreading the gospel to all nations.

What is OMF...

"In 1866 Hudson Taylor, his wife, children and 16 missionaries left England for China. He founded what is now OMF – with just £10, and "all the promises of God". He prayed consistently, and God met all his needs. Hudson believed the gospel would only take root if missionaries were willing to identify with the culture of the people they wanted to reach. We believe that too. 150 years on, our work continues with the same pioneering spirit. The same vision. The same desire to see an authentic Christian witness flourish across East Asia. In partnership with local churches, worldwide."
