I know well that God is a sovereign God, and does all things according to the counsel of His own will. I know that Rehoboam was the son of Solomon, and Manasseh the son of Hezekiah, and that you do not always see godly parents having a godly seed. But I know also that God is a God who works by means, and sure am I, if you make light of such means as I have mentioned, your children are not likely to turn out well.

Fathers and mothers, you may take your children to church—you may send them to the best of schools, and give them Bibles and prayer books, and fill them with head knowledge—but if all this time there is no regular training at home, I tell you plainly, I fear it will go hard in the end with your children's souls. Home is the place where habits are formed—home is the place where the foundations of character are laid—home gives the bias to our tastes, and likings, and opinions. See then, I beg you, that there be careful training at home. Happy indeed is the man who can say, as Bolton did upon his dying bed, to his children, "I do believe not one of you will dare to meet me before the tribunal of Christ in an unregenerate state." J.C. Lifechoices Change For Life Campaign

The LifeChoices' Change for Life baby bottle campaign will begin today and will run through Father's Day, June 18. The Change for Life campaign is a great opportunity for Crosspoint to financially bless LifeChoices by filling baby bottles with coins, dollars, and checks. The funds raised will help LifeChoices offset costs for individuals facing a sexual health crisis, such as an unplanned pregnancy or sexually transmitted infection. Start saving your change today!
