Benediction

"O Lord God Almighty...I give Thee thanks that Thou hast counted me, worthy of this day and this hour, that I should have a part in the number of Thy martyrs."

Prayer of Polycarp (69-155 A.D.)

Announcements

Today's sermon is titled "The Beheading of John the Baptist."
Below is a sermon excerpt from Ligon Duncan on this subject...

If ever there was a case of ungodliness of godliness unrewarded in this life, it's John's case. Here's a man who deserved, if anyone deserved, the reward of a faithful servant and yet, here his life ends in such a way. J.C. Ryle says, "Truly there was an event here, if ever there was one in the world, which might make an ignorant man say what profit is it to serve God?" But even in this event we learn that our hope must be placed on the city which has foundations. That's where John's hope was. And though surely this must have been the most disappointing of ways to end the ministry...Ryle again says, "Let all true Christians remember that their best things are yet to come. Let us count it not strange if we have sufferings in this present time."
