This morning we will be observing the Lord's Supper immediately following the morning worship service. Although this special service is a closed communion and open only to our covenant members, visitors are encouraged to remain in the sanctuary and observe this time of special remembrance.

"If God hath loved me once, then He will love me forever. God has a master-mind; He arranged everything in His gigantic intellect long before He did it; and once having settled it, He never alters it...This shall be done, it shall be brought to pass; This is My purpose, earth nor hell can alter it; This is my decree, you cannot alter the decree, it shall stand forever!"

Charles H. Spurgeon
