The Almighty appeared on earth as a helpless human baby, needing to be fed and changed and taught to talk like any other child. The more you think about it, the more staggering it gets. Nothing in fiction is so fantastic as this truth of the Incarnation.”

Joy Born At Bethlehem

Rejoice, ye who feel that ye are lost; your Saviour comes to seek and save you. Be of good cheer ye who are in prison, for he comes to set you free. Ye who are famished and ready to die, rejoice that he has consecrated for you a Bethlehem, a house of bread, and he has come to be the bread of life to your souls. Rejoice, O sinners, everywhere for the restorer of the castaways, the Saviour of the fallen is born. Join in the joy, ye saints, for he is the preserver of the saved ones, delivering them from innumerable perils, and he is the sure prefecter of such as he preserves. Jesus is no partial Saviour, beginning a work and not concluding it; but, restoring and upholding, he also prefects and presents the saved ones without spot or wrinkle, or any such thing before his Father's throne. Rejoice aloud all ye people, let your hills and valleys ring with joy, for a Saviour who is mighty to save is born among you.

Charles Haden Spurgeon

At the close of today's worship service each family will be presented with a copy of the New City Catechism. A perfect balance of core Christian beliefs, practical ethics and spiritual experience, the New City Catechism provides 52 questions and answers (one for each week of the year) to discuss and meditate upon. While no longer as commonly used as in the past, catechisms are an easy and helpful way for entire families and study groups to learn and affirm essential biblical truths. The New City Catechism was adapted by Timothy Keller and Sam Shammas from the Reformation catechisms.

Merry Christmas from Crosspoint Fellowship!
