Psalm 110

Matthew Henry's commentary on today's text, Psalm 110:

Glorious things are here spoken of Christ. Not only he should be superior to all the kings of the earth, but he then existed in glory as the eternal Son of God...Christ's sitting at the right hand of God, speaks as much terror to his enemies as happiness to his people. The effect of this victory shall be the utter ruin of his enemies. We have here the Redeemer saving his friends, and comforting them. He shall be humbled; he shall drink of the brook in the way. The wrath of God, running in the curse of the law, may be considered as the brook in the way of his undertaking. Christ drank of the waters of affliction in his way to the throne of glory. But he shall be exalted. What then are we? Has the gospel of Christ been to us the power of God unto salvation? Has his kingdom been set up in our hearts? Are we his willing subjects? Once we knew not our need of his salvation, and we were not willing that he should reign over us. Are we willing to give up every sin, to turn from a wicked, insnaring world, and rely only on his merits and mercy, to have him for our Prophet, Priest, and King? and do we desire to be holy? To those who are thus changed, the Saviour's sacrifice, intercession, and blessing belong.

The 2015 Crosspoint Fellowship calendar has arrived! This calendar will keep you up-to-date with Crosspoint birthdays, anniversaries, and special meetings, such as the Annual Church Conf and Covenant Membership Renewal Sunday. The calendar also includes the weekly New City Catechism (NCC) question that will be implemented during the Sunday morning Call to Worship. Calendars may be picked up at the front door.

Beginning January 4, 2015 Crosspoint will be implementing the New City Catechism during the Sunday morning Call to Worship. The New City Catechism is a joint adult and children's catechism adapted by Timothy Keller and Sam Shammas from the Reformation catechisms. The catechism is a statement of faith; the study of Scriptural doctrine using the practice of question and answer recitation. The catechism's may be picked up on the table as you enter the sanctuary. (2-3 minute commentaries on each of the weekly catechisms can be found on the following youtube link:
