Prayer for the Lord's Day

Drawn from the collection of Puritan prayers, The Valley of Vision.

"O Lord, My Lord, This is thy day, the heavenly ordinance of rest, the open door of worship, the record of Jesus' resurrection, the seal of the Sabbath to come, the day when saints militant and triumphant unite in endless song... But while I bless thee, shame and confusion are mine: I remember my past misuse of sacred things, my irreverent worship, my base ingratitude, my cold, dull praise. Sprinkle all my past Sabbaths with the cleansing blood of Jesus, and may this day witness deep improvement in me..."

Excerpt from A.W. Pink's sermon, Beholding the Crucified Christ, preached in 1911...

See here God's amazing grace. "God commends His love toward us (His people) in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us" (Romans 5:8). Had He so pleased, God could have consigned the whole of Adam's race to everlasting woe. That is what each of us richly deserve. And why should He not do so? By nature we are depraved and corrupt; by practice incorrigible rebels – with no love for Him and no concern for His glory. But out of His own goodness and graciousness, He determined to save a people from their sin, to redeem them by Christ, "to the praise of the glory of His grace" (Eph. 1:6). He determined to pluck them as brands from the burning, that they might be the eternal monuments of His mercy. And because it was wholly outside of their power to make atonement for their fearful crimes, He Himself provided an all-sufficient Sacrifice for them. He is "the God of all grace" (1 Peter 5:10) and innumerable tokens and proofs has He given of this – but nowhere were the "riches of His grace" so lavishly and so wondrously displayed as at Calvary.
