"I am the substitute! I am the sacrifice! Tomorrow when you see Me hanging from a cross, the very symbol of Roman dominion and oppression, I will not be the victim of Roman occupation; I will be the Lamb of God sent to take away the sins of the world. I will be the substitute for your sins. I will bear your sins. That's what I'm doing tomorrow."

Excerpt from the sermon, "This Do in Remembrance of Me"
By Dr. J. Ligon Duncan III

Dispatches From The Front, Episode 5, will take us on a journey to the Horn of Africa where we will witness the rapid advance of Christ's Kingdom in a region torn by war, shadowed by famine, and dominated by Islam. Father, Give Me Bread goes deep into Ethiopia's Great Rift Valley and up the White Nile to South Sudan. You will hear the stories and see the faces of people changed from the inside out by grace. You will also meet orphans once left for dead now rescued by Calvary Love and experience the joy as believers receive the Bible in their language for the first time. See the power of Jesus to save Muslim people, turning persecutors into preachers of the faith they once tried to destroy! Another window is opened to Gospel work in the world and showcases the stunning mercy of the Friend of Sinners.

"For so the Lord has commanded us, saying, "I have made you a light for the Gentiles, that you may bring salvation to the ends of the earth."
