The whole narrative of Abraham and Isaac is foreshadowing Christ's crucifixion. This picture that was recorded 2000 years before Christ's birth is a promise from God of what is to come. God's only begotten son, Jesus, hung on the cross so that His blood may not merely cover our sins, but wash them away completely.

If, then, you would deal wisely with your child, you must not leave him to the guidance of his own will. Think for him, judge for him, act for him, just as you would for one weak and blind; but for pity's sake, give him not up to his own wayward tastes and inclinations. It must not be his likings and wishes that are consulted. He knows not yet what is good for his mind and soul, any more than what is good for his body. You do not let him decide what he shall eat, and what he shall drink, and how he shall be clothed. Be consistent, and deal with his mind in like manner. Train him in the way that is scriptural and right, and not in the way that he desires.
