Song of Worship

Behold Our God

"The Omnipotent Lord will shield all those who dwell with him, they shall remain under his care as guests under the protection of their host. In the most holy place the wings of the cherubim were the most conspicuous objects, and they probably suggested to the psalmist the expression here employed. Those who commune with God are safe with Him, no evil can reach them, for the outstretched wings of his power and love cover them from all harm. This protection is constant -- they abide under it, and it is all sufficient, for it is the shadow of the Almighty, whose omnipotence will surely screen them from all attack. No shelter can be imagined at all comparable to the protection of Jehovah's own shadow. The Almighty himself is where his shadow is, and hence those who dwell in his secret place are shielded by himself. What a shade in the day of noxious heat! What a refuge in the hour of deadly storm! Communion with God is safety. The more closely we cling to our Almighty Father the more confident may we be." - Charles H. Spurgeon

Did you know...

There is an overwhelming need for trained pastors to interpret and teach God's Word faithfully to His people around the world. In the USA there is one trained Christian worker for every 235 people. Once you leave the USA that drops to one trained Christian worker for every 450,000 people. It is estimated that although many churches do not have pastors, and many pastors must of necessity serve more than one church in the regions where they live, 85% of the pastors around the world have no theological education or pastoral training. - David Sills
