When a Christian is under great troubles, deep distresses, and most extreme dangers; he should pray:

*more for the sanctification of affliction - than its removal;
more to get off his sins - than to get off his chains;
more to get good by the rod - than to get free from the rod;*

*that his afflictions may be a purifying and refining fire, that his heart may be low and his graces high,
that he may be more weaned from this world, that he be more ripe for eternal glory.*

Men's Meeting Following Fellowship Meal

All men are encouraged to attend a very important meeting today immediately following the fellowship meal. The meeting will be on selecting Ruling Elders for Crosspoint Fellowship. Please see Greg for any questions you may have.

*In his classic 1832 work, The Ruling Elder, Samuel Miller penned the following:
"The design of appointing persons to the office of Ruling Elder is not to pay them a compliment; not to give them an opportunity of figuring as speakers in judicatories; not to create the pageants of ecclesiastical ceremony; but to secure able, faithful and truly devoted counselors and rulers of the Church—to obtain wise and efficient guides, who shall not only go along with the flock in their journey heavenward, but go before them in everything that pertains to Christian duty."*
