Song of Worship	In Christ Alone #177

“We live in a world of mysteries...And God, who alone can explain all mysteries, is the greatest mystery of all. How little do we understand of the inexplicable wonders of a wonder working God, “whose thoughts are a great deep,” and “whose ways are past finding out.” But to God nothing is mysterious. In His purpose, nothing is unfixed. In His forethought, nothing is unknown. In His providence, nothing is contingent. “He knows the end from the beginning.”

A WORD OF PRAISE!

“I always want to remember this day, not for all the fireworks we set off, not for all the fun we had. I want to remember this day as the day I accepted Christ as my personal Lord & Savior.” ~ Emma Manning, 12 Years Old

This past Monday evening we had our monthly summer choir rehearsal. It was a wonderful evening with 21 youth present. We rehearsed for approx. one hour & then enjoyed a time of fellowship, complete with snacks & fireworks. The next day, we were notified that one of the youth, Emma Manning, had surrendered her life to following Christ. She awakened her parents at 2am to say she believed God was calling to be saved. Emma shared with her parents that she couldn't stop thinking about the lyrics the kids sang that night in choir practice. Emma shared she was convicted of her sin, broken, and repentant. Emma's mother, Lauren, wrote, “She has had the head knowledge of Jesus for years, but the calling and change of heart happened instantly as God opened her eyes to the gospel. I'm exuberant to share that I have a new sister in Christ, by faith alone, by grace alone, and to the glory of God alone!!!”

We have been praying for quite some time that the Lord would use the choir in some small way to draw many unto Himself. As we hear this testimony, we are humbled & in awe of the Lord's goodness & grace. Thank you to Crosspoint, for your prayers, finances, & support of the choir. May the Lord continue to bless His work.

“I planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the growth.” So neither he who plants nor he who waters is anything, but only God who gives the growth. ⁸He who plants and he who waters are one, and each will receive his wages according to his labor. ⁹For we are God's fellow workers. You are God's field, God's building.” 1 Corinthians 3:6-9
