Today's sermon is on the subject of Unbelief. The service is centered around this subject, from the songs to the scripture. Below is an excerpt from a sermon preached in 1937 by A.W. Pink on this particular subject...

Unbelief is part of the entail of the Fall. By nature all of us are "children in whom is no faith" (Deut. 32:20). Frightful thing is that! To have a heart which distrusts God; to have a heart which is ever prone to lean upon anyone and anything rather than upon the Lord Himself; to forsake the Fountain, and betake ourselves to "cisterns which hold no water." Such is fallen man. Plenty of faith in himself, faith in his fellows, until he is disillusioned and disappointed; but no faith in God. That it is which explains why Christ is "despised and rejected by men," so that in the days of His flesh He cried "O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you!" (Matt. 17:17). This it is which accounts for the universal attitude of men toward both the Law and the Gospel—they do not believe the Author and Giver of them, they are destitute of faith in Him; and thus they will continue all their days—unless the Holy Spirit sovereignly intervenes and performs a miracle of grace in their hearts....

Our text may be applied to personal assurance. How many a Satan-harassed believer is exclaiming, I greatly fear that I cannot be among the saved, for if I were, I surely would not sin as I do...But you say, My heart is such a sink of iniquity, I dare not claim to be regenerated; often I do not loathe sin, nor even desire to. Ah—but it is not always thus—are not such seasons followed by contrition and confession!?! Yes, you say—but right after I fall again into the mire, sometimes deeper than before; ah—but do you stay there? Do you completely abandon the Throne of Grace? Does not a cry of distress go up from you to God? Then continue crying "Lord, I believe; help my unbelief!"

"In all unbelief there are these two things:
a good opinion of one's self,
and a bad opinion of God."
