Scripture Reference: Mark 9:38-41

"Lord, I abhor myself on account of the defilement which cleaves unto me. Behold I am vile! I will lay my hand upon my mouth, and put my face in the dust! I have experienced a thousand proofs of Your goodness - the remembrance of which, fills me with shame, because of my ingratitude. The height of my folly lies in having so often sinned against your infinite goodness and love! I have abused Your kindness, and affronted Your mercy. O Lord, I beseech You, pardon my iniquity - for it is great!"
