Song of Worship	His Mercy Is More

He was despised and rejected by men, a man of sorrows and acquainted with grief; and as one from whom men hide their faces he was despised, and we esteemed him not. Surely he has borne our griefs and carried our sorrows; yet we esteemed him stricken, smitten by God, and afflicted. But he was pierced for our transgressions; he was crushed for our iniquities; upon him was the chastisement that brought us peace, and with his wounds we are healed.

Isaiah 53:3-5

If you will be able to assist please see either Hannah or Melissa. Sign-up sheet is located on the bulletin board in the basement.

You have not the liberty of making of your own cross; although unbelief is a master carpenter at cross-making. Neither are you permitted to choose your own cross; although self-will would gladly be lord and master. Your cross is prepared and appointed for you by divine love—and you are cheerfully to accept it. You are to take up the cross as your chosen portion, and not to stand caviling at it...Beloved, the cross is not made of soft feathers, or lined with velvet—it is heavy and galling to disobedient shoulders!...Remember that the cross will soon be followed by the crown. The thought of the coming weight of glory—will greatly lighten the present heaviness of trouble. May the Lord help you to bow your heart in submission to the divine will—that you may go forth to this day's cross with the holy and submissive spirit which befits a follower of the Crucified. ~ Charles H. Spurgeon
