Hymn of Reflection His Mercy Is More

---

There is an "abundance of grace" and that grace is for sinners, for great sinners; yes, for the greatest sinners, the vilest of sinners. The grace that saves, sanctifies and satisfies! And here is the price—no money, that is, it is gratuitous—you may have it for nothing. Sinner, great sinner, miserable sinner, poverty-stricken sinner, here is grace for you, on purpose for you, and there is abundance of it too. Come then, come to Jesus, come without delay, He will give you grace and glory—grace now, and glory at the close of life!

James Smith, 1859

*Now the law came in to increase the trespass,
but where sin increased, grace abounded all the more,
Romans 5:20*

Happy Mother's Day!

We would like to wish all of our mother's a Happy Mother's Day! At the close of the morning worship service, we will be gifting each mother with flowers.

What a beautiful reminder from Charles Spurgeon, on the importance of biblical motherhood:

You are as much serving God in looking after your own children, & training them up in God's fear, & minding the house, & making your household a church for God, as you would be if you had been called to lead an army to battle for the Lord of hosts

Take My Life and Let It Be

Our May Hymn of the Month is Take My Life and Let It Be, which was written by Frances Havergal in 1874. To help better understand the hymn, at the end of the morning worship service, each family will receive a copy of the book, Kept for the Master's Use. Although written more than one hundred years ago, Ms. Havergal's words are still relevant for today because Christ's call for complete devotion of hands, feet, voice, mind, emotions, and livelihood remains unchanged. Kept for the Master's Use is an emboldening call to live a life fully dedicated to Christ
